Consolidated Financial Reports For the First Quarter Ended September 30, 2023

Included in this consolidated report are the following quarterly financial reports for the period ended September 30, 2023:

- Budget Review:

The Consolidated Financial Reports Section 1 provides the Directors, staff, and the general public with a comprehensive overview of the financial results of the Orange County Sanitation District (OC San) through the first quarter ended September 30, 2023.

Contained within the Budget Review Sections 2 through 5 is the budget-to-actual status of the Collection, Treatment and Disposal Operations, Capital Improvement Program, Debt Service, and Self-Insurance Program. Also included is a Capital Assets Schedule as of September 30, 2023. The chart below provides for a summary of these activities.

Various detail information can be found in this report. Below is a descriptive summary of these activities through September 30, 2023:

- a) Most major expense categories are anticipated to approximate budget.
- b) Total revenues are at 3.6 percent of the $522.5 million budget, mainly due to the timing of property tax and sewer fee distribution from the County that occurs mostly after the first quarter. These two revenue sources make up 83.2 percent of OC San's total budgeted revenue. Other, less material revenue sources in comparison that are tracking significantly lower than the proportionate budget through September 30 include Capital Assessments-IRWD, CIP Reimbursements, CNG Sales, Other Revenues, and Other Sales. Overall, total revenues are projected to approximate budget at year-end. More detailed information on revenues is provided within Section 1 – Pages 3 through 5.

FY 2023-24 First Quarter Financial Report

- c) Collection, Treatment and Disposal Costs:
As indicated within the Consolidated Financial Reports Section of this report, the net operating requirements through the first quarter of $51.9 million is currently tracking at 24.1 percent of the $215.4 million budget. In addition, net operating expenses have increased $4.0 million or 8.3 percent in comparison with the same period last year. Overall, staff expects the total operating costs to remain at or slightly below budget throughout the remainder of the year. More detailed information on operating expenses is provided within Section 1 – Pages 1 through 3.

The total cost per million gallons is $3,018 based on flows of 187 million gallons per day. This is $172 per million gallons, or 5.4 percent less than the budgeted cost per million gallons per day. A further description of these costs and benchmarking with other agencies is contained within Section 1 – Pages 6 through 8.

- d) The total projected capital outlay cash flow of the Capital Improvement Program (CIP) for FY 2023-24 has been revised to $274.3 million, or 100.8 percent of the board approved cash outlay of $272.0 million. The actual cash outlay spending through the first quarter is $37.7 million, or 13.9 percent of the total budgeted outlay. More detailed information on the CIP budget review can be found in Section 1 – Page 9 and Section 3.

- Treasurer’s Report

This section reports on financial portfolio performance with respect to OC San’s funds. Both Long-Term and Liquid Operating Monies Portfolios are summarized. A performance summary table can be found on page 2 of this section. The report also contains information on the national economic outlook from OC San’s money manager, Chandler Asset Management (Chandler).

Chandler notes the Long-Term Portfolio quarterly return of 31 basis points outperformed the ICE BofA 1-5 Year AAA-A US Corp & Govt Index return of 25 basis points, while the Liquid Operating Monies Portfolio quarterly return of 145 basis point outperformed the ICE BofA 3-Month US Treasury Bill Index return of 131 basis points.

Chandler further notes that recent economic data continues to suggest positive but below trend growth this year. Labor markets remain solid, and the U.S. consumer has demonstrated resiliency. Inflationary trends are subsiding, but core levels remain well above the Fed’s target. Given the cumulative effects of restrictive monetary policy and tighter financial conditions, Chandler believes the economy will gradually soften and the Fed will remain data dependent as they tread cautiously going forward.

As anticipated at the September meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee voted unanimously to maintain the target Federal Funds at the range of 5.25 - 5.50%. The Fed's Summary of Economic Projections (SEP) also revealed expectations of higher economic growth, reduced unemployment, and a gradual easing of inflation compared to earlier forecasts. The Fed is continuing to focus on achieving price stability and bringing inflation down toward their 2% policy objective, while leaving the option open for the possibility of additional rate hikes in the future if needed.

Bond yields rose in September, with the long end of the curve bearing the brunt of the increase. During the month, the 2-year Treasury yield increased by 18 basis points, ending at 5.04%, while the 5-year Treasury yield increased by 36 basis points to 4.61%. Additionally, the 10-year Treasury yield saw a notable uptick of 46 basis points, reaching 4.57%. The yield curve remains inverted but has become less so over the past few months as market participants adjust to the Fed's new narrative of higher for longer. It is worth noting that the yield curve has remained inverted since July 2022, signaling potential economic concerns or uncertainties.

Bond yields rose across the yield curve in September as the Federal Reserve and market participants adopted the narrative of higher for longer related to interest rates. The inversion between the 2-year Treasury yield and 10-year Treasury yield narrowed to -48 basis points at September month-end, from -76 basis points at August month-end. The spread between the 2-year Treasury and 10-year Treasury yield one year ago was -45 basis points. The inversion between 3-month and 10-year Treasuries narrowed to -88 basis points in September from -134 basis points in August. The shape of the yield curve indicates that the probability of recession persists.

Inflation data continues to provide encouraging indications of moderating inflation trends. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) witnessed a monthly increase of 0.6% in August, while the annual rate of the CPI rose to 3.7% due to an unfavorable year-over-year comparison. The core Consumer Price Index, excluding volatile food and energy costs, showed a modest 0.3% rise, reaching a year-over-year rate of 4.3%, down from 4.7% in July. The Personal Consumption Expenditures (PCE) index rose as expected by 3.3% year-over-year in July, up from a 3.0% year-over-year gain in June. Core PCE, the Federal Reserve's preferred inflation gauge, increased by 4.2% year-over-year in July, up from a 4.1% increase in June. Personal spending remained robust, but the personal savings rate decreased to 3.5% from 4.3% in July. Inflation remains above the Fed's 2% target.

FY 2023-24 First Quarter Financial Report

Economic Outlook

In the face of tighter financial conditions, with interest rates continuing to increase and bank lending standards restrictive, the US consumer remains resilient, pushing out the timeline on an anticipated economic downturn. One of the more significant catalysts for the strength of the consumer is the imbalance in the US labor market. Demand for workers continues to exceed available supply, keeping the unemployment rate low and wages firm, propelling the economy with above trend GDP growth through the first half of the year with a likely outsized third quarter GDP number expected at the end of October. Additionally, although the month over month level of the savings rates is just below 4%, historically a cautionary level, the cumulative savings rate, taking into account the lofty level of savings during the pandemic, remains elevated. The 36-month moving average on the savings rate is 7.9%, down from a high of 11.3% in the second half of 2021 and above the 6.5% 36 month moving average in December 2019, before the onset of the pandemic. The Chandler team expects the accumulated savings rate to trend lower in coming months, ultimately pressuring the consumer and the resiliency of the US economy in 2024.

The Chandler team was expecting the economy to exhibit more signs of weakness in the third quarter, but our forecast did not come to fruition. Jobless Claims were trending higher as the second quarter came to a close, with the four-week moving average as of June 30 up to 254k, however the trend reversed with the four-week moving average as of September 29 down to 209k. The Chandler team believes Jobless Claims sustained above the 250k threshold will be required to put upward pressure on the unemployment rate and loosen up the overall job market. Payroll growth also accelerated in the third quarter, with the three-month moving average on payrolls currently 266k compared to 201k at the end of June, another surprise to the Chandler team. The unemployment rate ticked higher by 0.2% to 3.8% between June and September 2023, but the participation rate also increased by 0.2% to 62.8%; an unemployment rate below 4.0% remains broadly consistent with full employment. Wage growth remains above levels consistent with the Federal Reserve's 2% inflation objective, but the rate of change on a year over year basis is trending down with Average Hourly Earnings currently at 4.2%, compared to 4.4% at the end of June, and 4.8% as of December 2022. Both Core CPI and Core PCE year-over-year inflation continue to trend lower, with Core CPI down to 4.1% as of September 2023 compared to 4.8% in June 2023; Core PCE inflation is 3.9% as of August 2023, compared to 4.3% in June of 2023. The Chandler team is forecasting core inflation to continue to trend lower on a year over year basis, and end the year below 4%, but be challenged to get all the way down to the 2% policy objective in 2024 unless the employment and wage backdrop deteriorates materially.

Treasury yields moved higher during the third quarter, but the moves were more pronounced further out the yield curve as market participants are more comfortable pricing in a 'higher for longer' outlook for monetary policy in light of the resilience of the US economy. Notably, ten-year Treasury notes traded well above the 4% threshold, starting the quarter at 3.84% and ending the quarter with a yield of 4.57%. The move in two-year Treasury notes was less pronounced, with a yield of 4.90% at the beginning of the quarter extending to 5.04% at the end of the quarter. The level of inversion between the two-year and ten-year treasury notes decreased, ending the quarter at -47 basis points compared to the June 30 valuation of -106 basis points. Chandler believes the adjustment in the level of inversion in the yield curve is a signal the market is pricing in a less onerous domestic economic downturn and will provide a better opportunity for fixed income investors to generate a more sustainable total real return in coming quarters, with interest rates structurally higher.

FY 2023-24 First Quarter Financial Report

each year. The increase of $68,000, or 376.5 percent in service fee revenue over the prior year is primarily due to the timing of receipts and user fee refunds. The property tax revenue decrease of $131,000, or 8.4 percent over the prior year is a result of the timing of unsecured and supplemental tax receipts. These revenues are expected to approximate budget at year-end.

- Revenues – Permit Fees – Permit Fees are at $5.5 million, or 34.2 percent of the $16.1 million budget. The revenues through the first quarter are higher than the same period last year by $900,000, or 19.5 percent, due to the fluctuation in the number of permittees from year to year as businesses establish or cease their operations and an increase in operation and maintenance charges based on flows received from these customers. Permit Fees revenues are expected to be above budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Inter District Sewer Use – SAWPA and SBSD – Inter District Sewer Use-SAWPA and SBSD are at $742,000 or 25.2 percent of the $2.9 million budget. This revenue is derived from charges to the Santa Ana Watershed Protection Agency (SAWPA) and Sunset Beach Sanitary District (SBSD) for treatment of flows. The revenues through the first quarter are lower than the same period last year by $5,000, or 0.6 percent, due to a decrease in operation and maintenance charges based on flows received from these agencies. These revenues are expected to approximate budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Intra District Sewer Use – IRWD – Intra District Sewer Use-IRWD are at $987,000, or 18.3 percent of the $5.4 million budget. This revenue is derived from charges to the Irvine Ranch Water District (IRWD) for treatment of flows. The revenues through the first quarter are lower than the same period last year by $1.0 million, or 51.1 percent, due to an increase of $946,000 in interest income allocated to IRWD and a decrease of $103,000 in operating and maintenance charges to IRWD. These revenues are expected to be below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Capital Assessments – IRWD – Capital Assessments-IRWD are at $992,000, or 13.9 percent of the $7.2 million budget. The revenues through the first quarter are higher than the same period last year by $375,000, or 60.9 percent, mainly due to an increase in the percentage of joint capital costs allocable to IRWD. It is estimated that IRWD capital assessments revenues will be below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Capital Facilities Capacity Charges (CFCC) – CFCC are at $3.2 million, or 17.5 percent of the $18.5 million budget. The revenues through the first quarter are higher than the same period last year by $315,000, or 10.7 percent, due to an increase in capacity charges collected from local agencies and charges assessed to industrial dischargers. These revenues are expected to approximate or be below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Interest Earnings (Loss) – Interest Earnings are at $5.4 million, or 38.3 percent of the $14.1 million budget. The revenues through the first quarter are higher than the same period last year by $17.9 million, or 143.1 percent, due to the prior year having a negative total rate of return on securities held in the long-term investment portfolio, which was largely comprised of unrealized losses. It is estimated that interest earnings will exceed budget at year-end.

- Revenues – CIP Reimbursements – CIP Reimbursements are at $24,000, or 0.2 percent of the $10.2 million budget. This revenue is $8,000 or 44.7 percent higher than the same period last year and is proportionately low to the budget through the first quarter due to timing of reimbursements for construction projects, such as from Orange County Water District for J-117B Outfall Low Flow Pump Station and for P2-122 Headworks Modifications at Plant No. 2 for GWRS Final Expansion. These revenues are expected to be below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Wastehauler – Wastehauler revenues are at $181,000, or 24.1 percent of the $750,000 budget. This revenue is derived from fees charged to wastehaulers, allowing them to dump waste into OC San's system. The revenues through the first quarter are lower than the same period last year by $14,000, or 7.4 percent, due to a decrease in waste dumping. These revenues are expected to approximate budget at year-end.
- Revenues – CNG Sales – CNG Sales revenues are at $42,000, or 10.5 percent of the $400,000 budget. This revenue is derived from public sales at OC San's Compressed Natural Gas (CNG) fueling station. The revenues through the first quarter are lower than the same period last year by $37,000, or 46.9 percent, due to a decrease in compressed natural gas sales and prices. These revenues are expected to be below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Rents & Leases – Rents & Leases revenues are at $121,000, or 20.2 percent of the $600,000 budget. The revenues through the first quarter mirror those of the same period last year, with an increase of only $835 or 0.7 percent. These revenues are expected to approximate or be slightly below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Other – Other revenues are at $185,000, or 1.6 percent of the $11.7 million budget. These revenues are $11,000, or 5.7 percent lower than the same period last year. These revenues are expected to be below budget at year-end.
- Revenues – Power Sales – Power Sales revenues are at $59,000, or 236.6% percent of the $25,000 budget. The revenues through the first quarter are higher than the same period last year by $40,000, or 212.0 percent, due to both an increase in the quantity of surplus generated energy exported to Southern California Edison and an increase in the buyback rate.

FY 2023-24 First Quarter Financial Report

Comparison of First Quarter Cost per Million Gallon Results with Budget Last Five Years

As demonstrated in the preceding graph for the current and each of the last four fiscal years, the cost per million gallons at the end of the first quarter has been between 2.2 percent lower and 5.4 percent lower than the annual budget. The FY 2023-24 first quarter cost per million gallons of $3,018 is 5.4 percent lower when compared with this year's budget. The increase in cost per million gallons of $127 from the previous year is primarily due to an increase in operating expenses, which are 8.3 percent higher than the same period last year, partially offset by an increase in flows, which are 3.7 percent higher than the same period last year. Staff believes that overall operating costs will be at or slightly below budget at year-end.

The total cost per million gallons at September 30 is $3,018 based on flows of 187 million gallons per day. This is $172 per million gallons, or 5.4 percent less than the budgeted cost per million gallons of $3,190. The lower cost per million gallons is due to flows of 187 million gallons per day being 1.1 percent higher than the budgeted flow of 185 million gallons per day, which has an inverse relationship to cost per unit of collection, treatment, and disposal, and net expenses being 3.5 percent lower than the proportionate budget through September 30.

More detailed information on operating revenues, costs, and related information is provided within Section 2.

Consolidated Financial Reports

Following are data tables showing the last five years of Single Family Residential User Fees (SFR) and the cost per million gallons (MG) to collect, treat, and dispose of wastewater for the Orange County Sanitation District and similar agencies. The agencies used in the tables were determined to be those that most closely resembled OC San in terms of services provided and treatment levels. The summaries demonstrate that OC San's SFR and cost per MG are each one of the lowest in their respective groups.

Consolidated Financial Reports

Capital Outlay Review:

As depicted by the preceding chart, Capital Outlays totaled $37.7 million, or 13.9 percent of the capital outlay cash flow budget for FY 2023-24 as of September 30, 2023. Costs are lower than the proportionate budget through the first quarter as some projects are still in the design phase or have experienced various delays or deferrals. Examples as of September 30 are Headworks Rehabilitation at Plant No. 1, which has a budget of $62.7 million but actual costs of $7.4 million, Primary Treatment Rehabilitation at Plant No. 2, which has a budget of $23.9 million but actual costs of $1.2 million, and TPAD Digester Facility at Plant No. 2, which has a budget of $9.8 million but actual costs of $530,000. Overall, the capital outlay costs of the capital improvement program are expected to approximate $274.3 million, or 100.8 percent of the capital outlay cash flow budget at year-end.

More detailed information on the capital improvement program is provided within Section 3.

Capital Assets Schedule and Debt Service Budget Review: Section 4 is the Capital Assets Schedule and Debt Service Section. This section shows the cost value of OC San's capital facilities at September 30, 2023, as well as the debt service costs resulting from the need to provide funding for the construction of capital facilities.

Principal payments on debt issues are due in February, during the third quarter of each fiscal year. As of September 30, 2023, no principal payments have been made. Interest costs are expensed ratably throughout the fiscal year and are expected to approximate budget at year-end.

FY 2023-24 First Quarter Financial Report

SUMMARY

Section 17.0 of the Orange County Sanitation District's (OC San) Investment Policy includes quarterly reporting requirements for OC San's two investment portfolios. These two funds, the "Liquid Operating Monies," and the "Long-Term Operating Monies" are managed by Chandler Asset Management, OC San's external money manager.

The ongoing monitoring of OC San's investment program by staff and Callan Associates, OC San's independent investment advisor, indicates that OC San's investments are in compliance with OC San's adopted Investment Policy and the California Government Code, and that overall performance has tracked with benchmark indices. In addition, sufficient liquidity and anticipated revenues are available for OC San to meet budgeted expenditures for the next six months. OC San's portfolios do not include any reverse repurchase agreements or derivative securities.

Dear Lorenzo,

Bond Market Recap

Recent economic data continues to suggest positive but below trend growth this year. Labor markets remain solid, and the U.S. consumer has demonstrated resiliency. Inflationary trends are subsiding, but core levels remain well above the Fed's target. Given the cumulative effects of restrictive monetary policy and tighter financial conditions, we believe the economy will gradually soften and the Fed will remain data dependent as they tread cautiously going forward.

As anticipated at the September meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee voted unanimously to maintain the target Federal Funds at the range of 5.25 - 5.50%. The Fed's Summary of Economic Projections (SEP) also revealed expectations of higher economic growth, reduced unemployment, and a gradual easing of inflation compared to earlier forecasts. The Fed is continuing to focus on achieving price stability and bringing inflation down toward their 2% policy objective, while leaving the option open for the possibility of additional rate hikes in the future if needed.

Bond yields rose in September, with the long end of the curve bearing the brunt of the increase. During the month, the 2-year Treasury yield increased by 18 basis points, ending at 5.04%, while the 5-year Treasury yield increased by 36 basis points to 4.61%. Additionally, the 10-year Treasury yield saw a notable uptick of 46 basis points, reaching 4.57%. The yield curve remains inverted but has become less so over the past few months as market participants adjust to the Fed's new narrative of higher for longer. It is worth noting that the yield curve has remained inverted since July 2022, signaling potential economic concerns or uncertainties.

Bond yields rose across the yield curve in September as the Federal Reserve and market participants adopted the narrative of higher for longer related to interest rates. The inversion between the 2-year Treasury yield and 10-year Treasury yield narrowed to -48 basis points at September month-end, from -76 basis points at August month-end. The spread between the 2-year Treasury and 10-year Treasury yield one year ago was -45 basis points. The inversion between 3-month and 10-year Treasuries narrowed to -88 basis points in September from -134 basis points in August. The shape of the yield curve indicates that the probability of recession persists.

Consumer Prices

Inflation data continues to provide encouraging indications of moderating inflation trends. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) witnessed a monthly increase of 0.6% in August, while the annual rate of the CPI rose to 3.7% due to an unfavorable year-over-year comparison. The core Consumer Price Index, excluding volatile food and energy costs, showed a modest 0.3% rise, reaching a year-over-year rate of 4.3%, down from 4.7% in July. The Personal Consumption Expenditures (PCE) index rose as expected by 3.3% year-over-year in July, up from a 3.0% year-over-year gain in June. Core PCE, the Federal Reserve's preferred inflation gauge, increased by 4.2% year-over-year in July, up from a 4.1% increase in June. Personal spending remained robust, but the personal savings rate decreased to 3.5% from 4.3% in July. Inflation remains above the Fed's 2% target.

Retail Sales

Retail Sales rose 0.6% in August, exceeding the consensus forecast. Sales of motor vehicles and higher gasoline prices drove greater than expected gains. However, Control Group Sales, which are used to calculate gross domestic product and exclude food services, auto dealers, building materials stores and gasoline stations, rose just 0.1%, the smallest advance in five months. On a year-over-year basis, retail sales growth decelerated to a 2.5% gain in August versus a downwardly revised 2.6% gain in July. The Conference Board's Consumer Confidence Index dropped more than expected to 103.0 in September from an upwardly revised 108.7 in August, primarily due to significantly weaker future expectations for employment. While the consumer has been resilient, dwindling excess savings, rising credit card balances, and the resumption of student loan payments pose potential headwinds to future economic growth.

Labor Market

The U.S. economy added 336,000 jobs in September, exceeding consensus expectations of 170,000, and the last two months were revised upward by 119,000 jobs. The largest gains came from leisure and hospitality, bringing restaurant and bar employment back in-line with pre-pandemic levels. The pace of job growth has picked up recently, with the three-month moving average payrolls at 266,000 and the six-month moving average at 234,000. The unemployment rate was unchanged at 3.8%, and the labor participation rate was consistent with last month's report at 62.8%. The U-6 underemployment rate, which includes those who are marginally attached to the labor force and employed part time for economic reasons declined slightly to 7.0% from the prior month at 7.1%. Average hourly earnings declined to 4.2% year-over-year in September from 4.3% in August. Employment remains strong by historical standards.

Housing Starts

Starts of new homes slowed -11.3% to 1.283 million units at a seasonally adjusted annual rate in August after a downward revision to 1.447 million units in July. The slower starts came from both a 4.3% decline in single-family home starts and 26.3% decline in multi-family homes, continuing the reversal of strong multi-family homebuilding in the second half of 2022 and early 2023. Total starts of new homes are down 14.8% year-over-year. According to Freddie Mac, average 30-year fixed rate mortgage rates increased to 7.35% as of September 28th. Rising mortgage rates are prompting homebuilders to offer incentives to attract buyers and has caused homebuilder sentiment to reach a five-month low. According to the Case-Shiller 20-City Home Price Index, housing prices rose 0.1% year-over-year in July, improving from a 1.2% decline in June. Tight inventories and higher mortgage rates continue to impact affordability.

Long-Term Portfolio

The OC Sanitation Long Term Portfolio generated a total return of 0.31% during the quarter, outperforming the 0.25% return of the ICE Bank of America Merrill Lynch AAA-A US Corporate and Government Index by six basis points. The portfolio continues to be positioned somewhat conservatively considering the tightening financial conditions linked to the restrictive monetary policy settings by the Federal Reserve. The overall duration of the portfolio is no longer structurally short relative to the benchmark as the Chandler team is biased to take on more interest rate risk in portfolios based on current valuations in the market and our internal view on the future trajectory of monetary policy. The overall asset allocation of the portfolio relative to the benchmark contributed to the positive relative performance, with the out of benchmark allocation to the Asset Backed sector a notable positive contributor.

Multiple securities were purchased across the Treasury, Agency, Supranational, Asset Backed, and corporate portion of the allocation to keep the portfolio positioned consistent with Chandler targets. The purchased securities ranged in maturity from February 2028 to August 2028 as the Chandler team focused on increasing the interest rate sensitivity of the portfolio during the quarter. Several shorter maturity securities were sold, and one security was called, to provide the liquidity to facilitate the new holdings in the portfolio. $10 million was withdrawn from the portfolio during the quarter. The sector allocation was relatively stable on a quarter-over-quarter basis although the underlying mix of securities evolved. The two largest changes in the sector allocation were the 2% increase in the Supranational allocation, to 8.4% of the portfolio, partially offset by the 1.0% decline in the Asset Backed sector, primarily due to paydowns of existing securities. The duration of the portfolio increased on a quarter-over-quarter basis, moving out to 2.42 as of September 30, 2023, compared to 2.35 as of June 30, 2023. The Chandler team adjusted the strategy of the strategy to be longer, and closer to the benchmark, based on our forecast the Federal Reserve is near the end of their campaign to increase the Fed Funds rate.

Liquid Portfolio

The Liquidity Portfolio generated a positive total return of 1.45% during the quarter, outperforming the 1.31% return of the ICE Bank of America 3-Month Treasury Bill Index. Multiple securities were purchased in the Treasury, Commercial Paper, and corporate portions of the allocation to keep the portfolio fully invested. The purchased securities ranged in maturity from July 2023 to June 2024. One security was sold and many matured to both facilitate the new holdings in the portfolio and account for the net $60 million that was withdrawn from the portfolio during the quarter. The sector allocation evolved with the money market allocation contracting by 25.9% to 1.7% of the portfolio as the Chandler team invested more funds further out the curve in Q3 2023. Correlated with the issuance trends of the US government, Treasury Bills continue to offer better valuations compared to the Agency discount note sector, thus a higher-than-normal portion of the allocation remains in the Treasury sector. The duration of the portfolio increased moderately, currently at 0.22 compared to 0.16 at the end of the prior quarter. The duration of the portfolio is likely to extend further in the coming quarter as the Chandler team invests more of the available monies with longer duration securities.

Economic Outlook

In the face of tighter financial conditions, with interest rates continuing to increase and bank lending standards restrictive, the US consumer remains resilient, pushing out the timeline on an anticipated economic downturn. One of the more significant catalysts for the strength of the consumer is the imbalance in the US labor market. Demand for workers continues to exceed available supply, keeping the unemployment rate low and wages firm, propelling the economy with above trend GDP growth through the first half of the year with a likely outsized third quarter GDP number expected at the end of October. Additionally, although the month over month level of the savings rates is just below 4%, historically a cautionary level, the cumulative savings rate, taking into account the lofty level of savings during the pandemic, remains elevated. The 36-month moving average on the savings rate is 7.9%, down from a high of 11.3% in the second half of 2021 and above the 6.5% 36 month moving average in December 2019, before the onset of the pandemic. The Chandler team expects the accumulated savings rate to trend lower in coming months, ultimately pressuring the consumer and the resiliency of the US economy in 2024.

The Chandler team was expecting the economy to exhibit more signs of weakness in the third quarter, but our forecast did not come to fruition. Jobless Claims were trending higher as the second quarter came to a close, with the four-week moving average as of June 30 up to 254k, however the trend reversed with the four-week moving average as of September 29 down to 209k. The Chandler team believes Jobless Claims sustained above the 250k threshold will be required to put upward pressure on the unemployment rate and loosen up the overall job market. Payroll growth also accelerated in the third quarter, with the three-month moving average on payrolls currently 266k compared to 201k at the end of June, another surprise to the Chandler team. The unemployment rate ticked higher by 0.2% to 3.8% between June and September 2023, but the participation rate also increased by 0.2% to 62.8%; an unemployment rate below 4.0% remains broadly consistent with full employment. Wage growth remains above levels consistent with the Federal Reserve's 2% inflation objective, but the rate of change on a year over year basis is trending down with Average Hourly Earnings currently at 4.2%, compared to 4.4% at the end of June, and 4.8% as of December 2022. Both Core CPI and Core PCE year-over-year inflation continue to trend lower, with Core CPI down to 4.1% as of September 2023 compared to 4.8% in June 2023; Core PCE inflation is 3.9% as of August 2023, compared to 4.3% in June of 2023. The Chandler team is forecasting core inflation to continue to trend lower on a year over year basis, and end the year below 4%, but be challenged to get all the way down to the 2% policy objective in 2024 unless the employment and wage backdrop deteriorates materially.

Treasury yields moved higher during the third quarter, but the moves were more pronounced further out the yield curve as market participants are more comfortable pricing in a 'higher for longer' outlook for monetary policy in light of the resilience of the US economy. Notably, ten-year Treasury notes traded well above the 4% threshold, starting the quarter at 3.84% and ending the quarter with a yield of 4.57%. The move in two-year Treasury notes was less pronounced, with a yield of 4.90% at the beginning of the quarter extending to 5.04% at the end of the quarter. The level of inversion between the two-year and ten-year treasury notes decreased, ending the quarter at -47 basis points compared to the June 30 valuation of -106 basis points. We believe the adjustment in the level of inversion in the yield curve is a signal the market is pricing in a less onerous domestic economic downturn and will provide a better opportunity for fixed income investors to generate a more sustainable total real return in coming quarters, with interest rates structurally higher.

Strategy

Strategy highlights for the Long-Term portfolio in coming months

- Focus on increasing the duration and overall interest rate sensitivity of the portfolio as the Chandler team forecasts an end to the Federal Reserve's tightening cycle in the second half of 2023.
- Continue to seek opportunities to identify and purchase dislocated securities with attractive valuations correlated with the increased market volatility and tighter financial conditions.
 - Favor Supranational securities over bullet Agency notes given the current relative value differential at the margin.
 - Given late cycle dynamics, favor up in quality securities within the credit allocation.
- Remain active in the new issue Asset Backed market where spreads are attractive on a risk adjusted basis.
- Focus on risk management and optimizing the underlying mix of securities within the portfolio.

Strategy highlights for the Liquidity portfolio in coming months

- Focus on upcoming liquidity needs based on the cash flow forecast; ensure maturing securities offset cash flow needs. Opportunistically add longer duration Corporate, Negotiable CD, and Commercial paper beyond the six-month maturity point to enhance the total return of the strategy.

Section 1 | Economic Update

Economic Update

- Recent economic data continues to suggest positive but below trend growth this year. Labor markets remain solid, and the U.S. consumer has demonstrated resiliency. Inflationary trends are subsiding, but core levels remain well above the Fed's target. Given the cumulative effects of restrictive monetary policy and tighter financial conditions, we believe the economy will gradually soften and the Fed will remain data dependent as they tread cautiously going forward.
- As anticipated at the September meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee voted unanimously to maintain the target Federal Funds at the range of 5.25 - 5.50%. The Fed's Summary of Economic Projections (SEP) also revealed expectations of higher economic growth, reduced unemployment, and a gradual easing of inflation compared to earlier forecasts. The Fed is continuing to focus on achieving price stability and bringing inflation down toward their 2% policy objective, while leaving the option open for the possibility of additional rate hikes in the future if needed.
- The yield curve remained inverted in September. The 2-year Treasury yield increased 18 basis points to 5.05%, the 5-year Treasury yield rose 36 basis points to 4.61%, and the 10-year Treasury yield increased 46 basis points to 4.57%. The inversion between the 2-year Treasury yield and 10-year Treasury yield narrowed to -48 basis points at September month-end versus -76 basis points at August month-end. The spread between the 2-year Treasury and 10-year Treasury yield one year ago was -45 basis points. The inversion between 3-month and 10-year Treasuries narrowed to -88 basis points in September from -134 basis points in August. The shape of the yield curve indicates that the probability of recession persists.

Employment

The U.S. economy added 336,000 jobs in September, exceeding consensus expectations of 170,000, and the last two months were revised upward by 119,000 jobs. The largest gains came from leisure and hospitality, bringing restaurant and bar employment back in-line with pre-pandemic levels. The pace of job growth has picked up recently, with the three-month moving average payrolls at 266,000 and the six-month moving average at 234,000. The unemployment rate was unchanged at 3.8%, and the labor participation rate was consistent with last month's report at 62.8%. The U-6 underemployment rate, which includes those who are marginally attached to the labor force and employed part time for economic reasons declined slightly to 7.0% from the prior month at 7.1%. Average hourly earnings declined to 4.2% year-over-year in September from 4.3% in August. Employment remains strong by historical standards.

Job Openings & Labor Turnover Survey

Job Openings

The Labor Department’s Job Openings and Labor Turnover Survey (JOLTS) unexpectedly increased to 9.61 million in August from a revised 8.92 million in July. The level significantly surpassed the survey of Bloomberg economists’ expectations of 8.82 million and reflects approximately 1.5 job openings per available worker. Although JOLTS was an upside surprise, the quits rate remained at a benign 2.3% for August, well below its 3.0% peak in April 2022. Fewer quits can imply that workers are less confident in their ability to find another job in the current market. The current level of job openings remains elevated from a historical perspective.

Inflation

Source: US Department of Labor

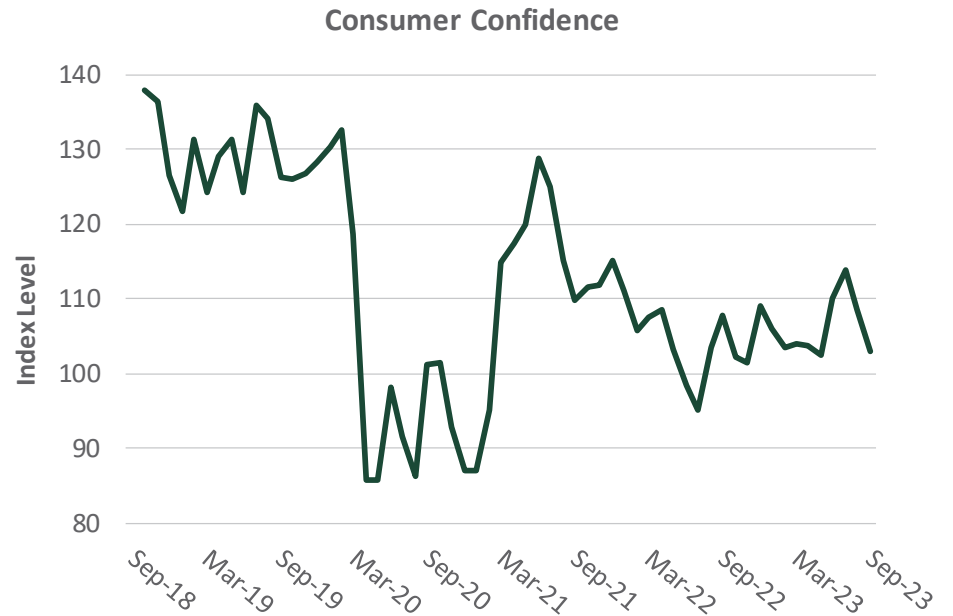

Source: US Department of Commerce

The Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased in September by 0.4% month-over-month and 3.7% year-over-year, slightly higher than expected. Gains in shelter and energy costs accounted for a large part of the monthly increase. The Core CPI, which excludes volatile food and energy components, was up 0.3% month-over-month and 4.1% year-over-year, decelerating from 4.3% last month. The Personal Consumption Expenditures (PCE) index rose 0.4% month-over-month and 3.5% year-over-year in August, up from a 3.4% year-over-year gain in July. Core PCE, the Federal Reserve’s preferred inflation gauge, increased just 0.1% month-over-month and 3.9% year-over-year in August, down from a 4.3% increase in July. Personal income and spending remained relatively healthy, but the personal savings rate continued its declining trend to 3.9% in August from 4.1% in July. Inflation remains above the Fed's 2% target.

Consumer

Source: US Department of Commerce

Source: The Conference Board

Retail Sales rose 0.6% in August, exceeding the consensus forecast. Sales of motor vehicles and higher gasoline prices drove greater than expected gains. However, Control Group Sales, which are used to calculate gross domestic product and exclude food services, auto dealers, building materials stores and gasoline stations, rose just 0.1%, the smallest advance in five months. On a year-over-year basis, retail sales growth decelerated to a 2.5% gain in August versus a downwardly revised 2.6% gain in July. The Conference Board’s Consumer Confidence Index dropped more than expected to 103.0 in September from an upwardly revised 108.7 in August, primarily due to significantly weaker future expectations for employment. While the consumer has been resilient, dwindling excess savings, rising credit card balances, and the resumption of student loan payments pose potential headwinds to future economic growth.

Chicago Fed National Activity Index (CFNAI)

The Conference Board’s Leading Economic Index (LEI) remained in negative territory for the seventeenth consecutive month at -0.4% in August due to weak new orders, deteriorating consumer expectations of business conditions, high interest rates, and tight credit conditions. The index declined 7.6% year-over-year. The consistent decline month-over-month continues to signal future contraction in the economy. The Chicago Fed National Activity Index (CFNAI) surprised to the downside at -0.16 in August from downwardly revised 0.07 in July. On a 3-month moving average basis, the CFNAI remained negative at -0.14 in August, indicating a rate of growth below the historical average trend.

Housing

Annualized Housing Starts

Source: S&P

Starts of new homes slowed -11.3% to 1.283 million units at a seasonally adjusted annual rate in August after a downward revision to 1.447 million units in July. The slower starts came from both a 4.3% decline in single-family home starts and 26.3% decline in multi-family homes, continuing the reversal of strong multi-family homebuilding in the second half of 2022 and early 2023. Total starts of new homes are down 14.8% year-over-year. According to Freddie Mac, average 30-year fixed rate mortgage rates increased to 7.35% as of September 28th. Rising mortgage rates are prompting homebuilders to offer incentives to attract buyers and has caused homebuilder sentiment to reach a five-month low. According to the Case-Shiller 20-City Home Price Index, housing prices rose 0.1% year-over-year in July, improving from a 1.2% decline in June. Tight inventories and higher mortgage rates continue to impact affordability.

Survey Based Measures

The Institute for Supply Management (ISM) Manufacturing index remained in contraction territory at 49.0 in September, up from 47.6 in August. This is the eleventh consecutive month of readings below 50.0, which is indicative of contraction in the manufacturing sector. However, this is the highest reading since November 2022, as both employment and new orders improved, while prices paid subsided. The ISM Services Index eased to 53.6 in September from the six-month high of 54.5 in August. The prices paid component continued to grow primarily due to high labor costs and an uptick in energy costs, but new orders reflected a significant slowdown.

According to the third estimate, second quarter annualized GDP growth remained unchanged at 2.1%. A material decline in consumer spending was offset by improvement in business investment. Historically low unemployment, wage growth and savings built up during the pandemic has supported consumer spending at a level to keep economic growth intact, but there are signs the consumer is beginning to show signs of stress. The consensus estimate calls for 3.0% growth for the third quarter and 2.1% for the full year 2023.

Federal Reserve

Effective Federal Funds Rate

Source: Bloomberg

At the September meeting, the Federal Open Market Committee voted unanimously to leave the Federal Funds rate unchanged at a target range of 5.25 - 5.50%. Nonetheless, the Fed conveyed a consensus view that another rate hike is possible later in the year, along with its commitment to keeping rates at their current level until inflation subsides closer to its 2% target, endorsing a data-dependent 'higher-for-longer' strategy. The Fed's Summary of Economic Projections (SEP) also revealed expectations of higher economic growth, reduced unemployment, and a gradual easing of inflation compared to earlier forecasts. We believe the resiliency of future economic data will determine if the Federal Reserve can stay on hold for or will tighten policy further to curb inflation. Since the Federal Reserve began its Quantitative Tightening campaign in June 2022, securities holdings have declined by over $1 trillion to $8.024T.

Bond Yields

At the end of September, the 2-year Treasury yield was 77 basis points higher, and the 10-Year Treasury yield was about 74 basis points higher, year-over-year. The inversion between the 2-year Treasury yield and 10-year Treasury yield narrowed to -48 basis points at September month-end versus -76 basis points at August month-end. The average historical spread (since 2003) is about +130 basis points. The inversion between 3-month and 10-year Treasuries narrowed to -88 basis points in September from -134 basis points in August. The shape of the yield curve indicates that the probability of recession persists.

The sector allocation evolved with the money market allocation contracting by 25.9% to 1.7% of the portfolio as the Chandler team invested more funds further out the curve in Q3 2023. Correlated with the issuance trends of the US government, Treasury Bills continue to offer better valuations compared to the Agency discount note sector, thus a higher-than-normal portion of the allocation remains in the Treasury sector.

Information contained herein is confidential. Prices are provided by ICE Data Services Inc ("IDS"), an independent pricing source. In the event IDS does not provide a price or if the price provided is not reflective of fair market value, Chandler will obtain pricing from an alternative approved third party pricing source in accordance with our written valuation policy and procedures. Our valuation procedures are also disclosed in Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A.

Performance results are presented gross-of-advisory fees and represent the client's Total Return. The deduction of advisory fees lowers performance results. These results include the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. Past performance may not be indicative of future results. Therefore, clients should not assume that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy will be profitable or equal to past performance levels. All investment strategies have the potential for profit or loss. Economic factors, market conditions or changes in investment strategies, contributions or withdrawals may materially alter the performance and results of your portfolio.

Index returns assume reinvestment of all distributions. Historical performance results for investment indexes generally do not reflect the deduction of transaction and/or custodial charges or the deduction of an investment management fee, the incurrence of which would have the effect of decreasing historical performance results. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

Fixed income investments are subject to interest, credit and market risk. Interest rate risk: the value of fixed income investments will decline as interest rates rise. Credit risk: the possibility that the borrower may not be able to repay interest and principal. Low rated bonds generally have to pay higher interest rates to attract investors willing to take on greater risk. Market risk: the bond market in general could decline due to economic conditions, especially during periods of rising interest rates.

Ratings information have been provided by Moody's, S&P and Fitch through data feeds we believe to be reliable as of the date of this statement, however we cannot guarantee its accuracy.

Security level ratings for U.S. Agency issued mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") reflect the issuer rating because the securities themselves are not rated. The issuing U.S. Agency guarantees the full and timely payment of both principal and interest and carries a AA+/Aaa/AAA by S&P, Moody's and Fitch respectively.

Fixed Income Market Snapshot

- U.S. bond returns are on the path for a third consecutive year of negative returns. The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index sank 3.2% in 3Q and is down 1.2% year-to-date. The U.S. Treasury 10-year yield soared nearly 80 bps during the quarter, closing at 4.59%, its highest since 2007. The yield curve “bear-steepened” with long-term rates rising more than short-term rates. As a result, the inversion between the 2-year and 10-year U.S. Treasury yields shrank from 106 bps to 44 bps. TIPS outperformed as 10-year breakeven spreads widened from 2.22% to 2.35% over the quarter. Corporates outperformed U.S. Treasuries with excess returns of 84 bps while agency-backed mortgages underperformed (-85 bps of excess return). High yield corporates continued to post strong relative returns (Bloomberg Corporate High Yield Index: +0.5%) and are up 5.9% year-to-date. Municipal bonds also posted negative results: the Bloomberg Municipal Bond Index dropped 4.0% and the shorter duration 1-10 Year Blend was down 1.2%.

Investment Manager Performance

- The Long Term Operating Fund grew 0.32% in the third quarter, while the ICE Corp/Gov 1-5 Year Index returned 0.29%. Over the trailing year, the portfolio appreciated 2.72%, in line with the 2.73% return of the benchmark. The fund ranks in the bottom quartile among peers over the trailing three-, five-, and seven-year periods.
- The Long Term Operating Fund duration increased and is no longer considered short relative to the benchmark. The increase in interest rate sensitivity stemmed from forecasts that the Fed is nearing the end of their rate hiking cycle. The Fund's allocation contributed to positive performance, including the out-of-benchmark exposure to asset-backed Securities. The portfolio had less than 30% invested in credit (26%) and less than the allowable 20% invested in the combination of asset-backed securities (11%), commercial mortgage-backed securities (0%), and CMOs (3%) as of September 30, 2023 (see page 20).
- The Liquid Operating Portfolio gained 1.32% in the third quarter, performing similarly to the Citigroup 3-Month Treasury Bill Index's return of 1.38%. Over the trailing year, the fund appreciated 4.63%, compared to the index which rose 4.71%.

U.S. EQUITY

Tough quarter for all indices

- All U.S. equity indices posted negative absolute returns during 3Q23.
- The Russell 2000 Value Index led the pack during the quarter, which was a reversal of the previous two quarters when the Russell 1000 Growth Index led.
- Only 2 of the 11 S&P 500 Index sectors gained in 3Q; Energy was up 12% and Communication Services rose 3%.
- On a YTD basis, six sectors generated positive returns, with Information Technology, Communication Services, and Consumer Discretionary substantially leading the group.

Active management remains challenging for large cap

- Index concentration stayed notable within the Russell 1000 Growth Index; the top 10 issuers comprised 51% of the index and the top 5 issuers comprised 40% of the index.
- YTD, 97% of the S&P 500's return has been driven by the 10 largest weighted stocks.
- The "Magnificent 7" has buoyed large cap index returns and has outperformed the broader market significantly. YTD, the Magnificent 7 alone is up 83%.
- No exposures or significant underweights to top benchmark names have been disadvantageous to absolute and relative performance for managers' portfolios.

Compelling small cap valuations

- Small cap valuations, on both an absolute and relative (to large cap valuations) basis, continue to look compelling and may point to an attractive entry point for investors.
- What continues to pressure the asset class is the rhetoric around interest rates; as investors anticipate a higher-for-longer interest rate environment, there are concerns about small cap companies' ability to repay and re-finance debt.
- If inflation data continues to improve in 2023, the small cap market could be positioned for a boost to performance.

GLOBAL EQUITY

Most global markets were in the red for 3Q23.

Narrow market with India and Japan leading

- Global markets retreated in 3Q23 amid fears of a global recession driven by higher interest rates and slowing growth in regions outside the U.S.
- Emerging markets outperformed developed markets, buoyed by good results from India, whose economy grew nearly 8% on the heels of supportive infrastructure spending.
- Japan was strong again in local currency as it continues to benefit from post-COVID exuberance, easy monetary policy, and a new economic stimulus plan.

Value outpaces growth

- With energy as a strong outperformer on the heels of oil price increases, value outpaced growth by a wide margin in global ex-U.S. markets.

Strong U.S. dollar a headwind

- The stronger U.S. dollar, which gained 3% over the quarter, was a notable headwind for the period.

Market dispersion is low

- Global markets have seen a prolonged period of low dispersion, excluding the 2016-2018 challenges with Brexit and oil price volatility. The global markets have seen high correlations for most of the last 10 years.
- This was in conjunction with a period of universally tight monetary policies, which helped mitigate any volatility.
- With increased dispersion of central bank actions, we expect there to be fewer co-movements across countries, a period that may benefit active management.

China: Danger or opportunity

Merits

- Long-term growth potential: China has the second-largest GDP and the world’s largest population of consumers.
- Compelling valuation: Forward earnings yield is at a decade high.

Considerations

- Downside risk: Chinese federal debt has continued to grow aggressively and may become unsustainable.
- Political risk: China is run by an authoritarian regime that may act against investors.
- Old before rich: China currently has 2.26 workers for every retiree—the U.S. has 2.8.

Lower-quality credit continued to outperform

- High yield spreads were flat, but the sector was buoyed by strong performance in July.
- IG corporate spreads tightened slightly and remain close to their 10-year average.
- Agency RMBS underperformed other securitized sectors as interest rate volatility weighed on the sector.

GLOBAL FIXED INCOME

- The ECB continued to tighten monetary policy in September, bringing rates to the highest level since launching the euro.

U.S. dollar strength detracted from unhedged returns

- U.S. dollar gained over 3% versus a basket of developed market currencies.

Emerging market debt indices also negative

- EM yield curves steepened; central banks in Latin America and Eastern Europe have begun monetary easing.

Risk/Reward Statistics

The risk statistics used in this report examine performance characteristics of a manager or a portfolio relative to a benchmark (market indicator) which assumes to represent overall movements in the asset class being considered. The main unit of analysis is the excess return, which is the portfolio return minus the return on a risk free asset (3 month T-Bill).

Alpha measures a portfolio's return in excess of the market return adjusted for risk. It is a measure of the manager's contribution to performance with reference to security selection. A positive alpha indicates that a portfolio was positively rewarded for the residual risk which was taken for that level of market exposure.

Beta measures the sensitivity of rates of portfolio returns to movements in the market index. A portfolio's beta measures the expected change in return per 1% change in the return on the market. If a beta of a portfolio is 1.5, a 1 percent increase in the return on the market will result, on average, in a 1.5 percent increase in the return on the portfolio. The converse would also be true.

Downside Risk stems from the desire to differentiate between "good risk" (upside volatility) and "bad risk" (downside volatility). Whereas standard deviation punishes both upside and downside volatility, downside risk measures only the standard deviation of returns below the target. Returns above the target are assigned a deviation of zero. Both the frequency and magnitude of underperformance affect the amount of downside risk.

Excess Return Ratio is a measure of risk adjusted relative return. This ratio captures the amount of active management performance (value added relative to an index) per unit of active management risk (tracking error against the index.) It is calculated by dividing the manager's annualized cumulative excess return relative to the index by the standard deviation of the individual quarterly excess returns. The Excess Return Ratio can be interpreted as the manager's active risk/reward tradeoff for diverging from the index when the index is mandated to be the "riskless" market position.

Information Ratio measures the manager's market risk-adjusted excess return per unit of residual risk relative to a benchmark. It is computed by dividing alpha by the residual risk over a given time period. Assuming all other factors being equal, managers with lower residual risk achieve higher values in the information ratio. Managers with higher information ratios will add value relative to the benchmark more reliably and consistently.

R-Squared indicates the extent to which the variability of the portfolio returns are explained by market action. It can also be thought of as measuring the diversification relative to the appropriate benchmark. An r-squared value of .75 indicates that 75% of the fluctuation in a portfolio return is explained by market action. An r-squared of 1.0 indicates that a portfolio's returns are entirely related to the market and it is not influenced by other factors. An r-squared of zero indicates that no relationship exists between the portfolio's return and the market.

Relative Standard Deviation is a simple measure of a manager's risk (volatility) relative to a benchmark. It is calculated by dividing the manager's standard deviation of returns by the benchmark's standard deviation of returns. A relative standard deviation of 1.20, for example, means the manager has exhibited 20% more risk than the benchmark over that time period. A ratio of .80 would imply 20% less risk. This ratio is especially useful when analyzing the risk of investment grade fixed-income products where actual historical durations are not available. By using this relative risk measure over rolling time periods one can illustrate the "implied" historical duration patterns of the portfolio versus the benchmark.

Residual Portfolio Risk is the unsystematic risk of a fund, the portion of the total risk unique to the fund (manager) itself and not related to the overall market. This reflects the "bets" which the manager places in that particular asset market. These bets may reflect emphasis in particular sectors, maturities (for bonds), or other issue specific factors which the manager considers a good investment opportunity. Diversification of the portfolio will reduce or eliminate the residual risk of that portfolio.

Risk/Reward Statistics

Rising Declining Periods refer to the sub-asset class cycles vis-a-vis the broader asset class. This is determined by evaluating the cumulative relative sub-asset class index performance to that of the broader asset class index. For example, to determine the Growth Style cycle, the S&P 500 Growth Index (sub-asset class) performance is compared to that of the S&P 500 Index (broader asset class).

Sharpe Ratio is a commonly used measure of risk-adjusted return. It is calculated by subtracting the "risk-free" return (usually 3 Month Treasury Bill) from the portfolio return and dividing the resulting "excess return" by the portfolio's risk level (standard deviation). The result is a measure of return gained per unit of risk taken.

Sortino Ratio is a downside risk-adjusted measure of value-added. It measures excess return over a benchmark divided by downside risk. The natural appeal is that it identifies value-added per unit of truly bad risk. The danger of interpretation, however, lies in these two areas: (1) the statistical significance of the denominator, and (2) its reliance on the persistence of skewness in return distributions.

Standard Deviation is a statistical measure of portfolio risk. It reflects the average deviation of the observations from their sample mean. Standard deviation is used as an estimate of risk since it measures how wide the range of returns typically is. The wider the typical range of returns, the higher the standard deviation of returns, and the higher the portfolio risk. If returns are normally distributed (ie. has a bell shaped curve distribution) then approximately 2/3 of the returns would occur within plus or minus one standard deviation from the sample mean.

Total Portfolio Risk is a measure of the volatility of the quarterly excess returns of an asset. Total risk is composed of two measures of risk: market (non-diversifiable or systematic) risk and residual (diversifiable or unsystematic) risk. The purpose of portfolio diversification is to reduce the residual risk of the portfolio.

Tracking Error is a statistical measure of a portfolio's risk relative to an index. It reflects the standard deviation of a portfolio's individual quarterly or monthly returns from the index's returns. Typically, the lower the Tracking Error, the more "index-like" the portfolio.

Treynor Ratio represents the portfolio's average excess return over a specified period divided by the beta relative to its benchmark over that same period. This measure reflects the reward over the risk-free rate relative to the systematic risk assumed.

Note: Alpha, Total Risk, and Residual Risk are annualized.

Fixed Income Portfolio Characteristics

All Portfolio Characteristics are derived by first calculating the characteristics for each security, and then calculating the market value weighted average of these values for the portfolio.

Allocation by Sector - Sector allocation is one of the tools which managers often use to add value without impacting the duration of the portfolio. The sector weights exhibit can be used to contrast a portfolio's weights with those of the index to identify any significant sector bets.

Average Coupon - The average coupon is the market value weighted average coupon of all securities in the portfolio. The total portfolio coupon payments per year are divided by the total portfolio par value.

Average Moody's Rating for Total Portfolio - A measure of the credit quality as determined by the individual security ratings. The ratings for each security, from Moody's Investor Service, are compiled into a composite rating for the whole portfolio. Quality symbols range from Aaa+ (highest investment quality - lowest credit risk) to C (lowest investment quality - highest credit risk).

Average Option Adjusted (Effective) Convexity - Convexity is a measure of the portfolio's exposure to interest rate risk. It is a measure of how much the duration of the portfolio will change given a change in interest rates. Generally, securities with negative convexities are considered to be risky in that changes in interest rates will result in disadvantageous changes in duration. When a security's duration changes it indicates that the stream of expected future cash-flows has changed, generally having a significant impact on the value of the security. The option adjusted convexity for each security in the portfolio is calculated using models developed by Lehman Brothers and Salomon Brothers which determine the expected stream of cash-flows for the security based on various interest rate scenarios. Expected cash-flows take into account any put or call options embedded in the security, any expected sinking-fund paydowns or any expected mortgage principal prepayments.

Average Option Adjusted (Effective) Duration - Duration is one measure of the portfolio's exposure to interest rate risk. Generally, the higher a portfolio's duration, the more that its value will change in response to interest rate changes. The option adjusted duration for each security in the portfolio is calculated using models developed by Lehman Brothers and Salomon Brothers which determine the expected stream of cash-flows for the security based on various interest rate scenarios. Expected cash-flows take into account any put or call options embedded in the security, any expected sinking-fund paydowns or any expected mortgage principal prepayments.

Average Price - The average price is equal to the portfolio market value divided by the number of securities in the portfolio. Portfolios with an average price above par will tend to generate more current income than those with an average price below par.

Average Years to Expected Maturity - This is a measure of the market-value-weighted average of the years to expected maturity across all of the securities in the portfolio. Expected years to maturity takes into account any put or call options embedded in the security, any expected sinking-fund paydowns or any expected mortgage principal prepayments.

Average Years to Stated Maturity - The average years to stated maturity is the market value weighted average time to stated maturity for all securities in the portfolio. This measure does not take into account imbedded options, sinking fund paydowns, or prepayments.

Current Yield - The current yield is the current annual income generated by the total portfolio market value. It is equal to the total portfolio coupon payments per year divided by the current total portfolio market value.

Fixed Income Portfolio Characteristics

Duration Dispersion - Duration dispersion is the market-value weighted standard deviation of the portfolio's individual security durations around the total portfolio duration. The higher the dispersion, the more variable the security durations relative to the total portfolio duration ("barbellness"), and the smaller the dispersion, the more concentrated the holdings' durations around the overall portfolio's ("bulletness"). The purpose of this statistic is to gauge the "bulletness" or "barbellness" of a portfolio relative to its total duration and to that of its benchmark index.

Effective Yield - The effective yield is the actual total annualized return that would be realized if all securities in the portfolio were held to their expected maturities. Effective yield is calculated as the internal rate of return, using the current market value and all expected future interest and principal cash flows. This measure incorporates sinking fund paydowns, expected mortgage principal prepayments, and the exercise of any "in-the-money" imbedded put or call options.

Weighted Average Life - The weighted average life of a security is the weighted average time to payment of all remaining principal. It is calculated by multiplying each expected future principal payment amount by the time left to the payment. This amount is then divided by the total amount of principal remaining. Weighted average life is commonly used as a measure of the investment life for pass-through security types for comparison to non-pass-through securities.

Rating Agency Comparisons

A summary of investment grade ratings are listed below. More complete descriptions of Moody's and Standard & Poor's ratings are included in the following pages.

Quality/Grade	Moody's	Standard & Poor's	Fitch
Best Quality	Aaa	AAA	AAA
High Quality	Aa1 Aa2 Aa3	AA+ AA AA-	AA+ AA AA-
Upper Medium Grade	A1 A2 A3	A+ A A-	A+ A A-
Medium Grade	Baa1 Baa2 Baa3	BBB+ BBB BBB-	BBB+ BBB BBB1

Moody's - Investment Grade

"Aaa" - Bonds rated Aaa are judged to be of the best quality. They carry the smallest degree of investment risk. Interest payments are protected by a large or by an exceptionally stable margin and principal is secure. While the various protective elements are likely to change, such changes as can be visualized are most unlikely to impair the fundamentally strong position of such issues.

"Aa" - Bonds which are rated Aa are judged to be of high quality by all standards. Together with the Aaa group they comprise what are generally known as high grade bonds. They are rated lower than the best bonds because margins of protection may not be as large as in Aaa securities or fluctuation of protective elements may be of greater amplitude or there may be other elements present which make the long-term risks appear somewhat larger than in Aaa securities.

"A" - Bonds which are rated A possess many favorable investment attributes and are to be considered as upper medium grade obligations. Factors giving security to principal and interest are considered adequate, but elements may be present which suggest a susceptibility to impairment sometime in the future.

"Baa" - Bonds which are rated Baa are considered as medium grade obligations; i.e., they are neither highly protected nor poorly secured. Interest payments and principal security appear adequate for the present but certain protective elements may be lacking or may be characteristically unreliable over any great length of time. Such bonds lack outstanding investment characteristics and in fact have speculative characteristics as well.

Bonds in the Aa, A, and Baa are also assigned "1", "2", or "3" based on the strength of the issue within each category. Accordingly, "A1" would be the strongest group of A securities and "A3" would be the weakest A securities.

Ba, B, Caa, Ca, and C - Bonds that possess one of these ratings provide questionable protection of interest and principal ("Ba" indicates some speculative elements; "B" indicates a general lack of characteristics of desirable investment; "Caa" represents a poor standing; "Ca" represents obligations which are speculative in a high degree; and "C" represents the lowest rated class of bonds). "Caa", "Ca" and "C" bonds may be in default.

Standard and Poor's - Investment Grade

AAA - Debt rated "AAA" has the highest rating assigned by S&P. Capacity to pay interest and repay principal is extremely strong.

AA - Debt rated "AA" has a very strong capacity to pay interest and repay principal and differs from the highest rated issues only in small degree.

A - Debt rated "A" has a strong capacity to pay interest and repay principal although it is somewhat more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than debt in higher rated categories.

BBB - Debt rated "BBB" is regarded as having an adequate capacity to pay interest and repay principal. Whereas it normally exhibits adequate protection parameters, adverse economic conditions or changing circumstances are more likely to lead to a weakened capacity to pay interest and repay principal for debt in this category than in higher rated categories.

Standard and Poor's - Speculative Grade Rating

Debt rated "BB", "B", "CCC", "CC" and "C" is regarded as having predominantly speculative characteristics with respect to capacity to pay interest and repay principal. "BB" indicates the least degree of speculation and "C" the highest. While such debt will likely have some quality and protective characteristics these are outweighed by major uncertainties or major exposures to adverse conditions.

BB - Debt rated "BB" has less near-term vulnerability to default than other speculative issues. However, it faces major ongoing uncertainties or exposure to adverse business, financial, or economic conditions which could lead to inadequate capacity to meet timely interest and principal payments. The "BB" rating category is also used for debt subordinated to senior debt that is assigned an actual or implied "BBB" rating.

B - Debt rated "B" has a greater vulnerability to default but currently has the capacity to meet interest payments and principal repayments. Adverse business, financial, or economic conditions will likely impair capacity or willingness to pay interest and repay principal. The "B" rating category is also used for debt subordinated to senior debt that is assigned an actual or implied "BB" or "BB" rating.

CCC - Debt rated "CCC" has a currently identifiable vulnerability to default, and is dependent upon favorable business, financial, and economic conditions to meet timely payment of interest and repayment of principal. In the event of adverse business, financial, or economic conditions, it is not likely to have the capacity to pay interest and repay principal. The "CCC" rating category is also used for debt subordinated to senior debt that is assigned an actual or implied "B" or "B" rating.

CC - The rating "CC" typically is applied to debt subordinated to senior debt that is assigned an actual or implied "CCC" debt rating.

C - The rating "C" typically is applied to debt subordinated to senior debt which is assigned an actual or implied "CCC" debt rating. The "C" rating may be used to cover a situation where a bankruptcy petition has been filed, but debt service payments are continued.

CI - The rating "CI" is reserved for income bonds on which no interest is being paid.

D - Debt rated "D" is in payment default. The "D" rating category is used when interest payments or principal payments are not made on the date due even if the applicable grace period has not expired, unless S&P believes that such payments will be made during such grace period. The "D" rating also will be used upon the filing of a bankruptcy petition if debt service payments are jeopardized.

Plus (+) or Minus (-) - The ratings from "AA" to "CCC" may be modified by the addition of a plus or minus sign to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

NR - Indicates no rating has been requested, that there is insufficient information on which to base a rating, or that S&P does not rate a particular type of obligation as a matter of policy.

Key features include: sophisticated asset allocation and optimization techniques, four layers of diversification (asset class, style, manager, and security), access to rigorously screened, top tier money managers, flexible investment options, and experienced investment management.

Rigorous Manager Due Diligence

Our manager review committee utilizes a rigorous screening process that searches for investment managers and styles that have not only produced above-average returns within acceptable risk parameters, but have the resources and commitment to continue to deliver these results. We have set high standards for our investment managers and funds. This is a highly specialized, time consuming approach dedicated to one goal: competitive and consistent performance.

Flexible Investment Options

In order to meet the unique needs of our clients, we offer access to flexible implementation strategies: HighMark Plus utilizes actively managed mutual funds while Index Plus utilizes index-based securities, including exchange-traded funds. Both investment options leverage HighMark's active asset allocation approach.

Risk Management

The portfolio is constructed to control risk through four layers of diversification – asset classes (cash, fixed income, equity), investment styles (large cap, small cap, international, value, growth), managers and securities. Disciplined mutual fund selection and monitoring process helps to drive return potential while reducing portfolio risk.

STYLE

The performance records shown represent size-weighted composites of tax exempt accounts that meet the following criteria: Accounts are managed by HighMark with full investment authority according to the PARS Conservative active and passive objectives.

The adviser to the PARS portfolios is U.S. Bank, and HighMark serves as sub-adviser to U.S. Bank to manage these portfolios. U.S. Bank may charge clients as much as 0.60% annual management fee based on a sliding scale. U.S. Bank pays HighMark 60% of the annual management fee for assets sub-advised by HighMark under its sub-advisory agreement with U.S. Bank. The 0.36% paid to HighMark, as well as other expenses that may be incurred in the management of the portfolio, will reduce the portfolio's returns. Assuming an investment for five years, a 5% annual total return, and an annual sub-advisory fee rate of 0.36% deducted from the assets at market at the end of each year, a $10 million initial value would grow to $12.53 million after fees (Net-of-Fees) and $12.76 million before fees (Gross-of-Fees). Gross returns are presented before management and custodial fees but after all trading expenses and reflect the reinvestment of dividends and other income. A client's return will be reduced by the advisory fees and other expenses it may incur as a client. Additional information regarding the firm's policies and procedures for calculating and reporting performance results is available upon request. Performance results are calculated and presented in U.S. dollars and do not reflect the deduction of investment advisory fees, custody fees, or taxes but do reflect the deduction of trading expenses. Returns are calculated based on trade-date accounting.

Blended benchmarks represent HighMark's strategic allocations between equity, fixed income, and cash and are rebalanced monthly. Benchmark returns do not reflect the deduction of advisory fees or other expenses of investing but assumes the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. An investor cannot invest directly in an index. The unmanaged S&P 500 Index is representative of the performance of large companies in the U.S. stock market. The MSCI EAFE Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index designed to measure developed market equity performance, excluding the U.S. and Canada. The MSCI Emerging Markets Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index that is designed to measure equity market performance in the global emerging markets. The Russell Midcap Index measures the performance of the mid-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. The Russell 2000 Index measures the performance of the small-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. The ICE BofA U.S. High Yield Master II Index tracks the performance of below investment grade U.S. dollar-denominated corporate bonds publicly issued in the U.S. domestic market. Wilshire REIT Index measures U.S. publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trusts. The unmanaged Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is generally representative of the U.S. taxable bond market as a whole. The ICE BofA 1-3 Year U.S. Corporate & Government Index tracks the bond performance of the ICE BofA U.S. Corporate & Government Index, with a remaining term to final maturity less than 3 years. The unmanaged FTSE 1-Month U.S. Treasury Bill Index tracks the yield of the 1-month U.S. Treasury Bill.

HighMark Capital Management, Inc. (HighMark) is an investment adviser registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a subsidiary of U.S. Bank National Association ("U.S. Bank"). STYLE

The performance records shown represent size-weighted composites of tax exempt accounts that meet the following criteria: Accounts are managed by HighMark with full investment authority according to the PARS Moderate active and passive objectives.

The adviser to the PARS portfolios is U.S. Bank, and HighMark serves as sub-adviser to U.S. Bank to manage these portfolios. U.S. Bank may charge clients as much as 0.60% annual management fee based on a sliding scale. U.S. Bank pays HighMark 60% of the annual management fee for assets sub-advised by HighMark under its sub-advisory agreement with U.S. Bank. The 0.36% paid to HighMark, as well as other expenses that may be incurred in the management of the portfolio, will reduce the portfolio's returns. Assuming an investment for five years, a 5% annual total return, and an annual sub-advisory fee rate of 0.36% deducted from the assets at market at the end of each year, a $10 million initial value would grow to $12.53 million after fees (Net-of-Fees) and $12.76 million before fees (Gross-of-Fees). Gross returns are presented before management and custodial fees but after all trading expenses and reflect the reinvestment of dividends and other income. A client's return will be reduced by the advisory fees and other expenses it may incur as a client. Additional information regarding the firm's policies and procedures for calculating and reporting performance results is available upon request. Performance results are calculated and presented in U.S. dollars and do not reflect the deduction of investment advisory fees, custody fees, or taxes but do reflect the deduction of trading expenses. Returns are calculated based on trade-date accounting.

Blended benchmarks represent HighMark's strategic allocations between equity, fixed income, and cash and are rebalanced monthly. Benchmark returns do not reflect the deduction of advisory fees or other expenses of investing but assumes the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. An investor cannot invest directly in an index. The unmanaged S&P 500 Index is representative of the performance of large companies in the U.S. stock market. The MSCI EAFE Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index designed to measure developed market equity performance, excluding the U.S. and Canada. The MSCI Emerging Markets Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization index that is designed to measure equity market performance in the global emerging markets. The Russell Midcap Index measures the performance of the mid-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. The Russell 2000 Index measures the performance of the small-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. The ICE BofA U.S. High Yield Master II Index tracks the performance of below investment grade U.S. dollar-denominated corporate bonds publicly issued in the U.S. domestic market. Wilshire REIT index measures U.S. publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trusts. The unmanaged Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is generally representative of the U.S. taxable bond market as a whole. The ICE BofA 1-3 Year U.S. Corporate & Government Index tracks the bond performance of the ICE BofA U.S. Corporate & Government Index, with a remaining term to final maturity less than 3 years. The unmanaged FTSE 1-Month U.S. Treasury Bill Index tracks the yield of the 1-month U.S. Treasury Bill.

WHY THE PARS DIVERSIFIED BALANCED PORTFOLIO?

Comprehensive Investment Solution

HighMark® Capital Management, Inc.'s (HighMark) diversified investment portfolios are designed to balance return expectations with risk tolerance. Key features include: sophisticated asset allocation and optimization techniques, four layers of diversification (asset class, style, manager, and security), access to rigorously screened, top tier money managers, flexible investment options, and experienced investment management.

Rigorous Manager Due Diligence

Our manager review committee utilizes a rigorous screening process that searches for investment managers and styles that have not only produced above-average returns within acceptable risk parameters, but have the resources and commitment to continue to deliver these results. We have set high standards for our investment managers and funds. This is a highly specialized, time consuming approach dedicated to one goal: competitive and consistent performance.

Flexible Investment Options

In order to meet the unique needs of our clients, we offer access to flexible implementation strategies: HighMark Plus utilizes actively managed mutual funds while Index Plus utilizes index-based securities, including exchange-traded funds. Both investment options leverage HighMark's active asset allocation approach.

Risk Management

The portfolio is constructed to control risk through four layers of diversification – asset classes (cash, fixed income, equity), investment styles (large cap, small cap, international, value, growth), managers and securities. Disciplined mutual fund selection and monitoring process helps to drive return potential while reducing portfolio risk.
